LINUX BASIC COMMANDS

1.sudo su - / sudo -i ------> switch to root user (admin user)

2.su - mayur -----> switch to mayur user (local user)

3.Prompts: -

Root user prompt: - root@localhost:~#

root --------- root user
localhost --- machine name (system name)
~ -------- Directory
------- login with root user

Local user prompt: - mayur@localhost:~$

mayur ------- local user
localhost --- machine name (system name)
~ -------- Directory
$ ------- login with local user

4.man man ----> to open manual

5.pwd ----------> present working directory (print working directory)

6.clear ----------> to clear the terminal

7.ls ----------> to check the files and directories

8.ls /home -----> to check the files of home directory

9.hostname ---> to check the machine name (system name)

10.which head ----> to check the path of command

11.whoami ---------> to check which user we are working on

12.whatis head ----> to get the short info about the command

13.uname ----------> to check the kernel

14.date ----------> to check the date

15.cal ----------> to check the calendar

16.echo “Hello World” ---> to print anything on the terminal

17.shutdown -----> to turn off the machine

CLOUDBLITZ

18.History ----------> to get the history of recently used commands

19.tee ----------> get the output as well as save into the file

20.tree ----------> gives the output in the hierarchy format

21.du -sh ----------> get the file size

21.free -h ----------> to get the memory status in the human readable format

---

How To Create a Directory/Folder: -

18.mkdir --------> to create a directory/folder

19.mkdir folder1 folder2 ------> create multiple folders

20.mkdir -p dir1/dir2/dir3 ----> create folder in folder / nested directory

21.cd ----------> change the directory

21.cd .. ----------> to return to the parent directory

How to Check Files/Directories: -

1.ls ----------> to check the files and directories

2.ls -l ----------> to check the files with permissions

3.ll ----------> to get all the files include the hidden files with permissions

4.ls -ltr ----------> to get files from bottom (reverse order)

5.ls -ld ----------> to get only the directories

6.ls -a ----------> to get all the files include the hidden files

---

How to Create a File

1.touch file

2.ls
