VIM EDITOR

SEARCH AND REPLACE WORD

1. :%s/word1 /word2/g ---------> Replace “word1” with the “word2” in entire file globally

Note: -

- : → command mode
- % → means entire file
- s → substitute (replace)
- word1 → old word
- word2 → new word
- g → replace all occurrences in each line (global)

2. :s/old/new/g ---------> Replace all occurrences only in the current line
3. :%s/old/new/gc -----> Ask yes/no before each replacement
4. :%s/aws//g ----------> To Delete the aws word in the entire file

---

CUT / COPY / PASTE COMMANDS

Cut

- cc → cut the current line
- <n>cc → cut the number of lines (example: 4cc)

Copy

- yy → Copy current line
- <n>yy → Copy n number of lines (example: 5yy)
- yw → copy the word
- <n>yw → copy the number of words

Paste

- p → Paste below cursor
- P → Paste above cursor
- <n>p → Paste the number of lines (example: 5p)

DELETE COMMANDS

Delete line

- dd → Delete current line
- <n>dd → Delete number of lines (example: 3dd)

CLOUDBLITZ

Delete word

- dw → Delete a word
- <n>dw → Delete number of words (example: 3dw)

Cut the word

- cw → cut the word
- <n>cw → cut the number of words (example: 3cw)

Visual Mode

Visual mode is used to select text and perform actions on the selected part (like delete, copy, change case, etc.).

- v → enter the visual mode
- up /down/ left/ right keys → for selecting the text
- d → delete the selected text
- y → copy the selected text
- u → convert selected text from upper case to lower case
- U → convert selected text from lower case to upper case
- ~ → convert selected text from lower to upper & upper to lower (upper <-----> lower)

Task:

1. Explore the nano command

CLOUDBLITZ
