LOG MANAGEMENT

WHAT ARE THE LOGS

1. It's a record of recent activities, recent events or notification.
2. Log management is the process of collecting, storing, and analyzing system-generated records (logs) to monitor
    - Activities
    - troubleshoot issues
    - security auditing
3. Port number of the rsyslog is 514

Logs file's locations

1. ls /var/log----------> to see the system logs
2. ls /var/log/httpd ---------> to see the httpd logs
3. ls /var/log/nginx ---------> to see the nginx logs

To check the logs

1.rsyslog

It's a demon service of which it can stores all the logs from the system as well as the remote logs.

2.journalctl

journalctl is a command used to view logs collected by systemd-journald.

TYPES OF LOGS WITH PRIORITY

1. emergency log --> (0)
2. alert log -------> (1)
3. critical log -------> (2)
4. error log -------> (3)
5. warning log -----> (4)
6. notice log ------> (5)
7. info log ---------> (6)
8. debug log ------> (7)

How to create a log

- logger "mayur"

How to check log

- journalctl -r

CENTRALISED LOG SERVER

It's a process of storing the logs from the network infrastructure and the application into the single location for storage and analysis.

LOG ROTATION

log rotation is a process of automatically rotating the logs, compressing the logs, deleting, moving, renaming the logs that are too big and too old and stored the new incoming logs into a new fresh file. we can rotate the logs monthly, weekly, daily depending upon their sizes.
